The Daily Courant.

Saturday, June 29. 1723.

THE following Addreſs to His Majeſty from the Council and Aſſembly of Barbadoes, has been tranſmitted hither by Henry Worſely, Eſq; Governour of that Iſland.

BARBADOES.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.
The humble Addreſs of the Council and General Aſſembly of this Iſland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Members of your Majeſty's Council and the General Aſſembly of your Majeſty's ſaid Iſland, humbly preſent this our Addreſs of Thanks to your moſt ſacred Majeſty, for appointing his Excellency Henry Worſley, Eſq; to be our Governour; a Gentleman whoſe conſummate Experience in Men and Things, whoſe Judgment, Integrity, and (which is moſt endearing to us) whoſe happy Temper give us all imaginable Aſſurances, that under him our Diviſions will be no more, Juſtice have its due Courſe, and Peace and Plenty, even yet, revive among us.

Many are the Bleſſings we have from time to time enjoyed under your Majeſty's wiſe, gentle, and ſteady Adminiſtration; but this laſt is ſo great an inſtance of your moſt gracious and inceſſant Care for the Good of your Subjects, though at the utmoſt Diſtance from your ſacred Perſon, that as it muſt neceſſarily occaſion the deepeſt Sentiments of Loyalty and Gratitude in us all, ſo it cannot but leave us without Excuſe, if we are not now truly Happy, ſince the faireſt and moſt favourable Opportunities are put into our Hands of being ſo. And that we may not appear to be entirely unworthy of ſuch Royal Goodneſs, we humbly crave Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, we are now unanimouſly determined, with the cloſeſt Application, to join with, and ſecond our Governour, in his moſt generous Intentions for promoting the Welfare of this Colony.

That Heaven may ſtill continue to give Succeſs to all your Majeſty's great and glorious Deſigns for the Happineſs of your People, and indeed of all Mankind, is, and always ſhall be the moſt fervent Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and obedient Subjects and Servants.

Moſcow, June 2. 'Some Perſons are taken up and 'brought hither daily on Account of the late Conſpiracy; already 16 are confined in the Caſtle 'called Kremlin, and charged with having formed a Deſign to overthrow the preſent Government. It is confidently reported, that Prince 'Menzikoff's Diſgrace proceeds chiefly from the 'Accompts he has given in relating to the Contributions formerly raiſed in the Dutchy of Mecklenbourg, which vaſtly differ from the Originals 'which the Duke of Mecklenbourg ſent into our 'Chancery: Complaints of the ſame Nature were 'formerly made from Poland, about great Sums 'raiſed there, of which but a ſmall Part entered 'the Czar's Treaſury. The Turkiſh Aga who 'was long expected here, is at laſt arrived from 'Conſtantinople, being the third Miniſter the 'Porte has ſent to the Czar within theſe Six 'Months.

Copenhagen, June 26. 'Vice-Admiral Roſenpalm is ſet out for Norway, with expreſs Orders 'to make all the Haſte he could to compleat the 'Number of Seamen that are raiſing in that Kingdom; he has the chief Direction of the Maritime Affairs there. Vice-Admiral Schindel is 'likewiſe gone to Fyen, Laaland, Falſter, and other 'Places under his Care, to haſten the liſting of 'Mariners in thoſe Parts; in ſhort, Seamen are 'every where preſſed to mann our Fleet with all 'Expedition. Our Workmen are very buſy upon 'the Holm, about finiſhing the new large Man of 'War, Anna Sophia, in order to get it ready to ſail 'with five other Men of War and as many Frigates, the Court intending to ſee which of the latter are the beſt Sailers, to which purpoſe the 'Royal Frigate has been fitted out, and the Captains are preparing to outvye one another. M. 'Dehn, Captain of a Company of Guards, having 'been ſent to Cologne to raiſe Recruits, had the 'Misfortune when going back through Weſtphalia, to have them rebel againſt him, however 'he had the Courage to withſtand them, and to 'reduce them to Obedience, after he had wounded 'ſeveral. The Queen, who had been indiſpoſed 'for ſome time, is now ſo well recovered as to be 'able to appear in Publick. 'Tis declared at 'Court, that her Majeſty is with Child.

Hambourg, June 29. 'The Duke of Holſtein 'Retſwick has received a very favourable Decree, 'iſſued by the Imperial Aulick Council at Vienna, 'relating to the Succeſſion of the Dutchy of Ploen, 'requiring that the ſaid Duke be forthwith put in 'Poſſeſſion to that Dutchy, without Prejudice to 'his other Claims concerning that Succeſſion; and 'in Caſe of Oppoſition, two neighbouring Princes 'ſhall be charged with the Execution of the ſaid 'Decree. The King of Denmark having ſent one 'of the Lords of his Bedchamber to Eutin, to propoſe to the Biſhop of that Place, the Duke of Holſtein's Uncle, a Marriage between his eldeſt 'Daughter and the Duke of Carlſtein Nordburg, 'the ſame is as good as agreed upon. Letters 'from Dantzick relate, that the Duke of Mecklenbourg is now preparing for his Return to his 'Dominions, intending to ſubmit to the Emperour's Mandates. The Duke Ferdinand of Courland, who is very old, lies at the Point of 'Death. Thoſe Letters make no Mention of the 'Ruſſian Fleet.

Hague, July 2. 'The States of Holland aſſemble next Week, intending to reſume the Conſideration of Ways and Means for ſending a Squadron if poſſible this Summer into the Mediterranean, which has been earneſtly deſired of them 'by the Ambaſſadour of Spain reſiding here. The 'Marqueſs de Puozzo Bueno arrived here a few 'Days ago from Great Britain; he is ſet out from 'hence to Amſterdam, but deſigns to return hither 'before he proceeds to Hanover.
